OTHER:

All used materials comply to the requirements of the DMG according RAL GZ 430. The seam layout may vary at fabric-, leather- or leather imitation processing. The mark at topstitch mat and cushions are design- and construction-conditioned. The processing of decorative-, fell- or double seams may vary at fabric-, leather- or leather imitation variations.

A special casual upholstery is characterized by supersoft/soft surface. In new condition the cover shows a pronounced rippling which is design- and construction intended. The upholstery is going to adjust to the body shape respectively the seat strenght eases slightly. Slight differences in the seat hardness at modules are construction-conditioned and therefore no reason for complaint

All back covers are delivered standard in the respective original upholstery. Indications referring to the material about fabrics you will find in our fabricand leather collection on the backside of the single fabrics and leatherqualities.

All values mentioned in the price list are approx. measurements in centimeter. We reserve the right of changes in form, colour and construction in the context of technical development. Please always note orders front view from left to right.
